The History of the Sergeants

The Archives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts contain an entry dated March 13, 1638, indicating that Governor Winthrop granted a charter to the Military Company of Massachusetts. The records of the “Company” reveal that on the first Monday of June 1638, Robert Keayne was elected the first commander and John Oliver and Joshua Hughes elected Sergeants.

Richard Morris, a charter member of the Company, served as Sergeant in 1637 and Thomas Savage, another charter member, is noted as serving as the Company’s first Orderly Sergeant. Thus began the traditions of Sergeant’s service to the Company that has survived to Modern Times with little change.

Today candidates, for Sergeant of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts usually begin planning a year or two in advance and join forces with other Ancients to prepare a campaign for election to the office for the year of their choice. Each candidate must declare his/her intention to seek the position of Sergeant of the Infantry or Sergeant of Artillery. Nominations are held on the first Monday of May. Elections are held at the Second regular Meeting in May along with other commissioned officers, Six Sergeants of the Infantry and six Sergeants of Artillery are elected.

The Seniority of the Sergeants is determined by Popular vote with the First Sergeant of Infantry being the “Chairman” of the group. At the ceremonial Drumhead Election on June Day, on Boston Common, the new Sergeants assume their responsibilities as they receive their Espons-tons and march off the Common to host their hospitality event prior to the June Day banquet.

The ensuing twelve months are filled with great activity: meetings, financial matters, social functions, parades, the Fall Field Day tour of Duty, funeral details and the Year Book.

During the course of the year, relationships between the Sergeants establish bonds as close brothers, which last the rest of their lives.

NOTE: Being a Sergeant in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery perhaps was best described by the Late LTC Jack Drummey: “Most members wouldn’t take the job again for a million dollars...or trade the experience for two million.”

History of the Pulaski Sergeants

Casimir Pulaski (1745-1779)

As you know, the 2020 FFDTD was planned For Australia and New Zealand in October. The Sergeant's name was to be The Southern Cross Sergeants. When Corvid 19 hit the world, plans changed. The Command Staff changed to the location of the trip to Charlestown, SC and Savannah, GA.

COL Cornelius (Neil) Maher discovered a connection to Boston, Charleston, SC and Savannah, GA. That was General Casimir Pulaski. Again plans changed. For a time, it looked like the pandemic would cancel all plans for a FFDTD.

COL Cornelius (Neil) Maher discovered a connection to Casimir Pulaski. And this is why...

Casimir Pulaski was a hero of the American Revolution for whom Counties in VA, AR, GA, MO, KY and IN are named. Pulaski TN, and 2 high schools in WI are also named for him as was the submarine USS Casimir Pulaski, and several other ships in the US and Polish navies and Fort Pulaski near Savannah, GA (important in the Civil War). A bridge in largely Polish immigrant neighborhood in New York and highways in Newark and Baltimore also bear his name. Statues commemorate him in Washington, Providence, Manchester, Hartford and Baltimore. Pulaski was a second son of a Polish nobleman and was a member of a small group of disaffected and rebellious young high-born men from Europe without whom the American Revolution would likely have foundered. Their ranks included Lafayette, who with Franklin recruited Pulaski in France in 1777, the Prussian Baron Friedrich von Steuben who introduced military tactics and discipline to Washington's troops at Valley Forge, another Polish officer, Tadeusz Kosciuszko, the Spanish Governor of Louisiana Bernardo de Galvez, and the Bavarian Baron Johann de Kalb.

These men were inspired by the ideals of the Enlightenment and the concepts of liberty and equality. They were a valuable few who proved their great worth among a larger number of European frivolous adventurers who taxed Washington's and the Congress' patience. Pulaski spent his brief life fighting as a revolutionary on two separate continents. The man later called the "Father of the American Cavalry" first distinguished himself as a leader of the Bar Confederation, a band of nobles who fought against foreign domination of Poland. After being exiled from his homeland in the early 1770s, he made his way to France and came into contact with Benjamin Franklin, who recruited him to the cause of American independence. The dashing young officer immediately proved his value in his first engagement at September 1777's Battle of Brandywine, where he led a rearguard action that helped cover General George Washington's retreat. Despite not speaking a lick of English, Pulaski was later made a brigadier general in the Continental cavalry. By 1778, he had taken over a role as commander of the "Pulaski Legion," an independent cavalry unit composed of American and foreign recruits. In the spring of 1779, the Legion was posted to the war's Southern theater and sustained severe casualties in the defense of Charleston. Just a few months later, Pulaski was mortally wounded by grapeshot while leading a cavalry attack during the Siege of Savannah. The 34-year-old's heroic death established him among the American Revolution's most famous foreign volunteers.

First Presidential Member of A.H.A.C.

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

James Monroe

The 5th President – 4 March 1817 to 4 March 1825

He was a Virginian and succeeded Madison. He was the fourth President from Virginia. He had been Secretary of State and of War under Madison. His administration is known as the "era of good feelings." There was no political strife. Upon re-election Monroe received all but one of the electoral votes cast. The dissenting vote was cast by an elector from New Hampshire who declared that only Washington should have the honor of a unanimous election.

James Monroe was born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, on 28 April 1758. In 1776 he enlisted in the Continental Army where he served with distinction. After the War he studied law and served in the Virginia Legislature; and, in 1790 he was elected to the United States Senate. He represented the United States in France, Spain and England. He negotiated the Louisiana Purchase. He was twice Governor of Virginia. Monroe married Elizabeth Kortwright of New York in 1786 and had two daughters.

During the Monroe administration Florida was purchased from Spain. Agitation over the admission of Missouri as a slave state resulted in the Missouri Compromise of 1820. His name has become inseparable associated with the famous political doctrine which denies to European nations the right to interfere with the existing governments in North and South America, or to colonize any part of the Americas. Known as the Monroe Doctrine, it was first expressed in his annual message of 1823 and has tremendously influenced our attitude toward South American countries and our whole foreign policy right up to the present time.

When President Monroe visited Boston in 1817, he was received with great enthusiasm and was provided with a military escort. It was on this visit that President Monroe was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 30 June 1817 and was then elected an Honorary Member, the highest distinction which the Company can bestow. James Monroe retired to Virginia when he left the White House. Later he went to visit with a daughter in New York, where he died on 4 July 1831. He was the third President to die on the nation's birthday. Burial in 1831 was in New York but in 1858 his remains were removed with great pomp to Richmond, Virginia, and reinterred 5 July in the Hollywood Cemetery.

Second Presidential Member of A.H.A.C.

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

Chester Alan Arthur

The 21st President – 20 September 1881 to 4 March 1885

An assassin's bullet ended the term of President Garfield and Vice President Chester Alan Arthur moved into the office of President on 20 September 1881. When he retired in 1885 he had won respect for his administration.

Chester Alan Arthur was born in Fairfield, Vermont, on 5 October 1830, the son of a Baptist minister. He graduated from Union College, taught school, and studied law. In 1854 he was admitted to the bar and began to practice in New York City. He married Ellen Lewis Herndon in 1859. He became prominent because of his success in two suits involving negroes. One was the "Lemmon Case" in which he secured a decision that a slave brought into New York in transit between two slave states was free while in New York; the other decision was that negroes were entitled to the same privileges as white people on the street railways of New York City. During the Civil War Arthur served as quartermaster general of the state troops. He was appointed Collector of Customs for the Port of New York in 1871.

He proved to be a capable Chief Executive and reversed his previous policy toward the Civil Service by signing the Pendleton Law for its reform in 1883. During his term of office the Tariff Act of 1883 was passed; the Southern Pacific, the Northern Pacific, and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroads were completed; a treaty with Nicaragua was negotiated to permit us to construct a canal, railway and telegraph line across that country; a reciprocal trade treaty with Mexico was signed; and the Washington Monument was completed and on Saturday, 21 February 1885 it was dedicated. On the occasion of this dedication, in General Philip H. Sheridan's Order, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company was assigned as Honorary Escort to the President of the United States. The President tendered the entire Company a reception at the White House.

In 1882, the Fall Field Day Tour of Duty was celebrated in Marshfield on account of the centennial celebration of the birthday of Daniel Webster. The Company had been invited to do escort duty to the President of the United States. It was on the occasion of this pleasant duty that President Arthur was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 12 October 1882, and was then elected an Honorary Member, the highest distinction which the Company can bestow.

When his term expired, President Arthur retired to New York, where he lived less than two years, dying on 18 November 1886. Burial was in Rural Cemetery, Albany, New York.

Third Presidential Member of A.H.A.C.

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

Calvin Coolidge

The 30th President – 3 August 1923 to 4 March

Vice President Calvin Coolidge moved into the office of President just before dawn on 3 August 1923, three hours after the news of President Harding's death reached him at Plymouth, Vermont, where he was visiting his father. The oath of office was administered there by his father, a justice of the peace and country storekeeper.

A farmhouse in Plymouth, Vermont, was the birthplace of Calvin Coolidge on 4 July 1872 and his boy-hood and youth were spent there. He graduated from Amherst College, studied law and began to practice in Northampton, Massachusetts. In 1905 he married Grace Anna Goodhue of Burlington, Vermont.

In Northampton he entered local politics and later served in the Massachusetts House of Representatives and Senate. He became President of the Senate; was elected Lieutenant Governor and was Governor in 1919 and again in 1920. In every official post he held, economy and efficiency were the ideals to which he adhered. Governor Coolidge attained national prominence with his handling of the Boston Police Strike in 1919, and in 1920 at the Republican national convention he was nominated for the vice presidency of the United States. When Calvin Coolidge took over the post vacated by President Harding's death, he continued to function in the calm, judicial way in which he had filled all previous offices. Economy was his watchword and he carried out his principle, worked for tax reduction and the retirement of national indebtedness.

President Coolidge was nominated by the Republicans for a second term in 1924. His administration was an era of prosperity in the United States and he was considered for a third term. However, on 2 August 1927 President Coolidge announced, "I do not choose to run for President in 1928." His decision was firm.

As Governor of Massachusetts, Calvin Coolidge had been the Commander-in-Chief of the A&HAC. During his administration he won the high regard and admiration of all thoughtful men and women. He stood firmly for the principles our Company had advocated during its existence. For these reasons, President Coolidge was enrolled as a member of A&HAC on 5 May 1924 and was then elected an Honorary Member.

In 1929 President Coolidge retired to his home in Northampton, Massachusetts, where he died on 3 January 1933. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Plymouth, Vermont.

Fourth Presidential Member of A.H.A.C.

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

John F. Kennedy

The 35th President – 20 January 1961 to 22 November 1963

John F. Kennedy, at 43, was the youngest man ever elected President and was the first Roman Catholic to hold the office. He was born in Brookline, Massachusetts, on 29 May 1917, the second son in the large family of Joseph P. Kennedy and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy, the daughter of a former Boston Mayor. He was graduated from Harvard in 1940. His senior thesis was published in the same year under the title, Why England Slept.

In World War 11, Lieutenant Kennedy commanded a PT boat in the Pacific and for gallantry in action he received the Navy and Marine Corps Medal. He was elected to Congress in 1946 and to the United States Senate in 1952. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1958. He was married in 1953 to Jacqueline Lee Bouvier of New York. In 1955 he wrote his Pulitzer Prize-winning best seller, Profiles in Courage.

He began his Administration by calling for a "New Frontier" and asked for immediate action on many social and economic problems. The New Frontier brought youth and excitement, tone and style to the White House and Kennedy's warm, vigorous public image was as well known abroad as here at home.

President Kennedy established the Peace Corps and in Southeast Asia he negotiated a truce in Laos and increased American aid to fight the Vietnamese Communists.

During his term, the East Germans aggravated the Berlin situation by constructing a wall across the city in August 1961 to halt the flow of refugees to the West. In 1962 aerial reconnaissance showed missiles and war-planes in Cuba capable of attacking much of the U.S. and South America. Kennedy ordered a naval blockade of the island to prevent further arms shipments.

On 22 November 1963 President Kennedy was shot twice as his motorcade paraded through the streets of Dallas, Texas. The President died within an hour. The accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, was captured the same day, but was himself shot and killed before he could be brought to trial.

John F. Kennedy was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 16 April 1956 and was elected an Honorary Member on 3 April 1961. On the occasion of his Inaugural as President on 20 January 1961, seventy-five officers and members proudly participated in the Inaugural Parade in Washington, D.C.

Private George Henry Maynard

Battle of Fredericksburg, Virginia 13 December 1862

First A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

"A wounded and helpless comrade, having been left on the skirmish line, this soldier voluntarily returned to the front line under a severe fire and carried the wounded man to a place of safety."

George Henry Maynard, born in Waltham, Massachusetts, 2 February 1836, enlisted as a private in the 13th Massachusetts Infantry and was assigned to Company D. He distinguished himself at the Battle of Antietam, when on 17 September 1862, while under fire, he carried two wounded comrades from the firing line to a rear area and then returned to the firing line.

In January 1864, he was commissioned as a Captain in the 82nd Regiment of U.S. Colored Infantry. He was promoted to Brevet Major on 13 March 1865, for distinguished and meritorious service, and was mustered out on 10 September of the following year.

Maynard served the A&HAC as 1st Sergeant of Infantry in 1879 and then as 4th Sergeant in 1887. He died in Waltham, Massachusetts, 26 December 1927, at the age of 91 years.

Corporal Lowell Mason Maxham

Battle of Marye's Heights, Virginia 3 May 1863

Second A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

This soldier, though severely wounded and in the face of a deadly fire from the enemy at close range, hearing a call to retreat, rallied the colors, rushed bravely forward, and was the first to enter the enemy's works on the crest of Marye's Heights, Virginia, and helped plant his regimental colors there."

Lowell Mason Maxham, born in South Carver, Massachusetts, 6 December 1841, was assigned as a Private in Company F of the 7th Massachusetts Infantry. As a Corporal he fought through the Peninsular Campaign of 1862- at Antietam and Fredericksburg- and then the Chancellorsville Campaign the next year, including the Battle of Marye's Heights. Immediately after this victory, lines were reformed. Maxham was called before his regiment and promoted to Color Sergeant. Not realizing how badly Maxham was wounded, the commander placed the colors in his charge. Maxham took the flag into the second battle of the day at Salem Heights where he was again wounded and carried from the battlefield disabled for life. He was discharged from the service by reason of wounds on 18 August 1863.

Corporal Maxham served the A&HAC as 3rd Sergeant of Infantry in 1891. He died in Boston Massachusetts, 13 February 1931, at the age of 89 years.

Colonel Francis Snow Hasseltine

Matagorda Bay, Texas 29 and 30 December 1863

Third A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

"In command of a detachment of 100 men, he conducted a reconnaissance for two days, baffling and beating back an attacking force of more than 1,000 Confederates, and regained his transport without loss."

Francis Snow Hasseltine, born in Bangor, Maine, 10 December 1833, was a member of the 13th Maine Infantry. He was a lawyer by profession. In Volume I of Civil War Papers published by the Loyal Legion in 1893, an article appears written by Colonel Hasseltine entitled, "Amusing The Enemy." He vividly described the action at Matagorda Bay but modestly omitted the fact that he was awarded the nation's highest military decoration.

Colonel Hasseltine served as a member of the A&HAC for many years before his death in Newtonville, Massachusetts, 17 February 1916, at the age of 83 years.

First Lieutenant Gardner Chandler Hawkins

The Battle of Petersburg, Virginia 2 April 1865

Fourth A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

"When the lines were wavering from the well directed fire of the enemy, this officer, acting Adjutant of the regiment, sprang forward, and with encouraging words cheered the soldiers on, and although desperately wounded, refused to leave the field until the enemy's works were taken."

Gardner Chandler Hawkins, born in Pomfret, Vermont, in 1846, joined Company E 3rd Vermont Infantry and rose to the rank of First Lieutenant. His battle citations were numerous. He won the Medal of Honor during the last desperate days of the War. The wound he received resulted in the loss of an eye.

In 1894, he earned the rank of Colonel by serving on the Military Staff of His Excellency Frederic T. Greenhalge, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and Commander-in-Chief of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery of Massachusetts.

Colonel Hawkins served as a member of the A&HAC for many years before his death in Winthrop, Massachusetts, 13 December 1913, at the age of 67 years.

Captain Thomas Jerome Hudner, Jr.
Chosen Reservoir Area of Korea 4 December 1950

Sixth A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty as a pilot in Fighter Squadron 32, while attempting to rescue a squadron mate whose plane struck by anti-aircraft fire and trailing smoke, was forced down behind enemy lines. Quickly maneuvering to circle the downed pilot and protect him from enemy troops infesting the area, Lt. (jg.) Hudner risked his life to save the injured flier who was trapped alive in the burning wreckage. Fully aware of the extreme danger in landing on the rough mountainous terrain, and the scant hope of escape or survival in subzero temperature, he put his plane down skillfully in a deliberate wheels-up landing in the presence of enemy troops. With his bare hands, he packed the fuselage with snow to keep the flames away from the pilot and struggled to pull him to his crashed aircraft and radioed other airborne planes, requesting that a helicopter be dispatched with an axe and fire extinguisher. He then remained on the spot despite the continuing danger from enemy action and, with the assistance of the rescue pilot, renewed a desperate but unavailing battle against time, cold, and flames. Lt. (jg.) Hudner's exceptionally valiant action and selfless devotion to a shipmate sustain and enhance the highest traditions of the U.S. Naval Service."

Captain Hudner was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC, on 17 April 1990. He thus became the sixth member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

Captain George Levick Street, III

Harbor of Qualpart Island, off Korea 14 April 1945

Fifth A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty as Commanding Officer of the U.S.S. TIRANTE during the First War Patrol of that vessel against enemy Japanese surface forces in the Harbor of Qualpart Island, off the Coast of Korea, on April 14, 1945. With the crew at surface battle stations, Commander (then Lieutenant Commander) Street approached the hostile anchorage from the south within 1200 yards of the coast to complete a reconnoitering circuit of the island. Leaving the ten-fathom curve far behind, he penetrated the mined and shoal obstructed waters of the restricted harbor despite numerous patrolling vessels and in defiance of five shore-based radar stations and menacing aircraft. Prepared to fight it out on the surface if attacked, Commander Street went into action, sending two torpedoes with deadly accuracy into a large Japanese ammunition ship and exploding the target in a mountainous and blinding glare of white flame. With the TIRANTE instantly spotted by the enemy as she stood out plainly in the flare of light, he ordered the Torpedo Data Computer set up while retiring and fired his last two torpedoes to disintegrate in quick succession the leading frigate and a similar flanking vessel. Clearing the gutted harbor at emergency full speed ahead, he slipped undetected along the shoreline, diving deep as a pursuing patrol dropped a pattern of depth charges at the point of submergence. His illustrious record of combat achievement during the

First War Patrol of the TIRANTE characterizes Commander Street as a daring and skilled leader and reflects the highest credit upon his valiant command and the United States Naval Service."

George Levick Street, III born in Richmond, Virginia 27 July 1913 graduated from the Naval Academy in 1937 and was commissioned an Ensign in June of that year. Besides the Congressional Medal Of Honor, he is the holder of the Navy Cross, Two Silver Stars, Presidential Unit Citation, and the Submarine Combat Insignia, all awarded for a series of submarine patrols against the Japanese commencing in early 1942.

Captain Street was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC, 27 September 1982. He thus became the fifth member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

Captain Street served 20 years as a member of A & HAC until his death in Andover, Massachusetts, 26 February 2000 at the age of 87 years.

Sergeant Charles A. MacGillivray

Near Woelfling, France 1 January 1945

Seventh A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

"Sergeant MacGillivray led a squad near Woelfling, France on 1 January 1945 when his unit moved forward in darkness to meet the threat of a breakthrough by elements of the 17th German Panzer Grenadier Division. Assigned to protect the left flank, he discovered hostile troops digging in. As he reported this information, several German machine guns opened fire, stopping the American advance. Knowing the position of the enemy, Sergeant MacGillivray volunteered to knock out one of the guns while another company closed in from the right to assault the remaining strong points. He circled to the left through woods and snow, carefully worked his way to the emplacement and shot the two camouflaged gunners at a range of three feet, as other enemy forces withdrew. Early in the afternoon of the same day, Sergeant MacGillivray was dispatched on reconnaissance and found that Company I was being opposed by about six machine guns reinforcing a company of fanatically fighting Germans. His unit began an attack but was pinned down by furious automatic and small arms fire. With a clear idea of where the enemy guns were placed, he voluntarily embarked on a lone combat patrol. Skillfully taking advantage of all available cover, he stalked the enemy, reached a hostile machine gun and blasted its crew with a grenade. He picked up a sub-machine gun from the battlefield and pressed on to within ten yards of another machine gun, where the enemy crew discovered him and feverishly tried to swing their weapon into line to cut him down. He charged ahead, jumped into the midst of the Germans and killed them with several bursts. Without hesitation, he moved on to still another machine gun, creeping, crawling and rushing from tree to tree, until close enough to toss a grenade into the emplacement and close with its defenders. He dispatched this crew also, but was himself seriously wounded. Through his indomitable fighting spirit, great initiative and utter disregard for personal safety in the face of powerful enemy resistance, Sergeant MacGillivray destroyed four hostile machine guns, and immeasurably helped his company to continue on its mission with minimum casualties."

Sergeant Charles A. MacGillivray was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC on 6 April 1992. He thus became the seventh member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

Captain Thomas Gunning Kelley

Ong Muong Canal in Kien Hoa Province, South Vietnam 15 June 1969

Eighth A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty in the afternoon while serving as commander of River Assault Division 152 during combat operations against enemy aggressor forces. Lieutenant Commander (then Lt.) Kelley was in charge of a column of 8 river assault craft which were extracting 1 company of U. S. Army infantry troops on the east bank of the Ong Muong Canal in Kien Hoa Province, when 1 of the armored troop carriers reported a mechanical failure of a loading ramp. At approximately the same time, Viet Cong forces opened fire from the opposite bank of the canal. After issuing orders for the crippled troop carrier to raise its ramp manually and for the remaining boats to form a protective cordon around the disabled craft, Lieutenant Commander Kelley realizing the extreme danger to his column and its inability to clear the ambush site until the crippled unit was repaired, boldly maneuvered the monitor in which he was embarked to the exposed side of the protective cordon in direct line with the enemy's fire, and ordered the monitor to commence firing. Suddenly an enemy rocket scored a direct hit on the coxswains flat, the shell penetrating the thick armor plate, and the explosion spraying shrapnel in all directions. Sustaining serious head wounds from the blast, which hurled him to the deck of the monitor, Lieutenant Commander Kelley disregarded his severe injuries and attempted to continue directing the other boats. Although unable to move from the deck or to speak clearly into the radio, he succeeded in relaying his commands through one of his men until the enemy attack was silenced and the boats were able to move to an area of safety. Lieutenant Commander Kelley's brilliant leadership, bold initiative, and resolute determination served to inspire his men and provide the impetus needed to carry out the mission after he was medically evacuated by helicopter. His extraordinary courage under fire, and his selfless devotion to duty sustain and enhance the finest traditions of the U. S. Naval Service."

Captain Thomas G. Kelley was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC on 28 June 1999. He thus became the eighth member to have received the nations highest military honor.

SGT Ryan M. Pitts

Kunar Province, Afghanistan 13 July 2008

Ninth A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

Sergeant Ryan M. Pitts distinguished himself by extraordinary acts of heroism at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty while serving as a Forward Observer in 2d Platoon, Chosen Company, 2d Battalion (Airborne), 503d Infantry Regiment, 173d Airborne Brigade during combat operations against an armed enemy at Vehicle Patrol Base Kahler in the vicinity of Wanat Village, Kunar Province, Afghanistan on July 13, 2008.

Early that morning, while Sergeant Pitts was providing perimeter security at Observation Post Topside, a well-organized Anti-Afghan Force consisting of over 200 members initiated a close proximity sustained and complex assault using accurate and intense rocket-propelled grenade, machine gun and small arms fire on Wanat Vehicle Patrol Base. An immediate wave of rocket-propelled grenade rounds engulfed the Observation Post wounding Sergeant Pitts and inflicting heavy casualties. Sergeant Pitts had been knocked to the ground and was bleeding heavily from shrapnel wounds to his arm and legs, but with incredible toughness and resolve, he subsequently took control of the Observation Post and returned fire on the enemy.

As the enemy drew nearer, Sergeant Pitts threw grenades, holding them after the pin was pulled and the safety lever was released to allow a nearly immediate detonation on the hostile forces. Unable to stand on his own and near death because of the severity of his wounds and blood loss, Sergeant Pitts continued to lay suppressive fire until a two-man reinforcement team arrived. Sergeant Pitts quickly assisted them by giving up his main weapon and gathering ammunition all while continually lobbing fragmentary grenades until these were expended. At this point, Sergeant Pitts crawled to the northern position radio and described the situation to the Command Post as the enemy continued to try and isolate the Observation Post from the main Patrol Base. With the enemy close enough for him to hear their voices and with total disregard for his own life, Sergeant Pitts whispered in the radio situation reports and conveyed information that the Command Post used to provide indirect fire support.

Sergeant Pitts' courage, steadfast commitment to the defense of his unit and ability to fight while seriously wounded prevented the enemy from overrunning the Observation Post and capturing fallen American soldiers, and ultimately prevented the enemy from gaining fortified positions on higher ground from which to attack Wanat Vehicle Patrol Base. Sergeant Ryan M. Pitts' extraordinary heroism and selflessness above and beyond the call of duty are in keeping with the highest traditions of military service and reflect great credit upon himself, Company C, 2d Battalion (Airborne), 503d Infantry Regiment, 173d Airborne Brigade and the United States Army.

COL Harvey C. Barnum, Jr.

Ky Phu in Quang Tin Province, Republic of Vietnam 18 December 1965

Tenth A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient

For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty. When the company was suddenly pinned down by a hail of extremely accurate enemy fire and was quickly separated from the remainder of the battalion by over 500 meters of open and fire-swept ground, and casualties mounted rapidly. Lt. Barnum quickly made a hazardous reconnaissance of the area, seeking targets for his artillery. Finding the rifle company commander mortally wounded and the radio operator killed, he, with complete disregard for his safety, gave aid to the dying commander, then removed the radio from the dead operator and strapped it to himself. He immediately assumed command of the rifle company, and moving at once into the midst of the heavy fire, rallying and giving encouragement to all units, reorganized them to replace the loss of key personnel and led their attack on enemy positions from which deadly fire continued to come.

His sound and swift decisions and his obvious calm served to stabilize the badly decimated units and his gallant example as he stood exposed repeatedly to point out targets served as an inspiration to all. Provided with 2 armed helicopters, he moved fearlessly through enemy fire to control the air attack against the firmly entrenched enemy while skillfully directing 1 platoon in a successful counterattack on the key enemy positions.

Having thus cleared a small area, he requested and directed the landing of 2 transport helicopters for the evacuation of the dead and wounded. He then assisted in the mopping up and final seizure of the battalion's objective. His gallant initiative and heroic conduct reflected great credit upon himself and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the Marine Corps and the U.S. Naval Service.

Jacklyn Harold Lucas

Iwo Jima, Volcano Islands 20 February 1945

Honorary Member

For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty while serving with the 1st Battalion, 26th Marines, 5th Marine Division, during action against enemy Japanese forces on Iwo Jima, Volcano Islands, 20 February 1945. While creeping through a treacherous, twisting ravine which ran in close proximity to a fluid and uncertain frontline on D-plus-1 day, Pfc. Lucas and 3 other men were suddenly ambushed by a hostile patrol which savagely attacked with rifle fire and grenades.

Quick to act when the lives of the small group were endangered by 2 grenades which landed directly in front of them, Pfc. Lucas unhesitatingly hurled himself over his comrades upon 1 grenade and pulled the other under him, absorbing the whole blasting forces of the explosions in his own body in order to shield his companions from the concussion and murderous flying fragments. By his inspiring action and valiant spirit of self-sacrifice, he not only protected his comrades from certain injury or possible death but also enabled them to rout the Japanese patrol and continue the advance. His exceptionally courageous initiative and loyalty reflect the highest credit upon Pfc. Lucas and the U.S. Naval Service.

A new cannon for Plymouth: AHAC donates a replica of Guernsey Falcon for Burial Hill

Inscription on the replica of the Guernsey cannon.

We wish to thank Capt. Nicholas Schiarizzi, PC and the 1638 Fund for fund raising for this once lost Cannon to be returned to Plymouth.

The Following Article was printed in the Wicked Local

For 65 years, two cannon stood guard on Burial Hill, ceremoniously protecting the site of the first fort of the Plymouth Colony. Next spring, if all goes as planned, a replica of one of them will be returned to its watch position above Town Square.

The AHAC delivered the newly forged cannon to Plymouth on Thursday. Town officials and state legislators were on hand to take possession of the 1,500-pound bronze ordinance, which will be stored at Pilgrim Hall Museum until the dedication ceremony next year.

“This is like payment for a job well done,” said John Mitchell, who has spent the last 10 years working toward this moment. “The idea of a replica cannon was first proposed in 2010. We started planning it six years ago. Now it’s here. I’m on cloud nine!”

Mitchell also serves on the Plymouth 400 committee. Several people within the organization – the oldest chartered military company on this side of the globe – played parts in making the cannon happen, but it has been his decade-long dream to make it a reality.

“We were an all-volunteer militia in 1638, and we still are today,” he said. “From the oldest chartered military organization in the Western Hemisphere to the oldest continuously operating public museum in the United States, we are honored and humbled for this partnership, and we hope history will someday reflect back and recognize this wonderful and historic day.”

Two cannon were placed on Burial Hill in 1920 to mark Plymouth’s 300th anniversary. They were sent to Plymouth as a gesture of friendship by the Honourable Artillery Company of England, from which the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company descends. Founded in 1537, the British group is the second oldest chartered military

In 1985, Plymouth returned one of the cannon to Guernsey, where it originally defended a castle in the mid-16th century. During World War II, the island off the coast of England was occupied by the Germans, who confiscated all cannon at the castle and melted them down for military purposes.

Also in 1985, Plymouth took stock of the remaining piece – a minion cast in 1544 – and realized it was too valuable to leave exposed on Burial Hill. It was transferred to Pilgrim Hall Museum, where it resides today.

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, which has historic ties to Plymouth, decided the town needed to have one cannon back on the hill above Town Square. The group worked with the Honourable Artillery Company in England to get exact measurements of the Guernsey Falcon, as the returned cannon is known, and commissioned Gillmor Ordinance of Ohio to cast a new one in bronze.

The Massachusetts company undertook the project and raised the funds necessary to construct an accurate reproduction. It was supposed to have been installed on Burial Hill during Plymouth's 400th anniversary commemoration, but those plans have been delayed because of the coronavirus pandemic. Instead, the cannon will reside at Pilgrim Hall Museum until a proper unveiling can be conducted.

"This is a proud day for Plymouth," Pilgrim Hall Executive Director Donna Curtin said after it was moved into the museum. "I'm already looking forward to next year when we can have the ceremony to dedicate this wonderful cannon on Burial Hill."

Michele Pecoraro, executive director of Plymouth 400 Inc., echoed those sentiments. "We are grateful to the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company for donating the Guernsey Cannon to Plymouth. I can't wait until we can have a proper dedication for this gift."
